INTRODUCTION

Judith:Hello and welcome to DutchPod101.com, where we study modern Dutch in a fun, educational format!

Peter:This is the first lesson for absolute beginners, the perfect place to get started.

Judith: So brush up on the Dutch that you started learning long ago, or start learning today.

Peter:Thanks for being here with us for this lesson. Judith, what is today's topic?

Judith: In this lesson you will learn how to make small talk in Dutch.

Peter: This conversation takes place on a street in Amsterdam.

Judith: The conversation is between Anna and Marijke, two friends who haven't seen each in a long time.

Peter: The speakers are friends, therefore they will be speaking informal Dutch.

Judith: Let's listen to the conversation.

LESSON CONVERSATION

M:Hallo, Anna? Hoe gaat het?

A:Hoi, Marijke!! Goed dank je, hoe gaat het met jou?

M:Goed, dank je wel.

A:Hoe gaat het met Jan?

M:Heel goed en met Bert en de kinderen?

A:Ook goed!

M:Wat een verrassing!

A:Ja!

English Host: Let's hear the conversation one time slowly.

M:Hallo, Anna? Hoe gaat het?

A:Hoi, Marijke!! Goed dank je, hoe gaat het met jou?

M:Goed, dank je wel.

A:Hoe gaat het met Jan?

M:Heel goed en met Bert en de kinderen?

A:Ook goed!

M:Wat een verrassing!

A:la!

English Host: Now let's hear it with the English translation.

M:Hallo, Anna? Hoe gaat het?

Judith:Hello, Anna? How's it going?

A:Hoi, Marijke!! Goed dank je, hoe gaat het met jou?

Judith: Hi, Marijke!! Good thanks, how is it going with you?

M:Goed, dank je wel.

Judith:Good, thank you.

A:Hoe gaat het met Jan?

Judith: How is it going with Jan?

M:Heel goed en met Bert en de kinderen?

Judith: Very good, and with Bert and the children?

A:Ook goed!

Judith: Also good!

M:Wat een verrassing!

Judith:What a surprise!

A:Ja!

Judith:Yes!

POST CONVERSATION BANTER

Judith:Ok, we should probably talk about the greetings in first lesson. Dutch people use different greetings according to the time of day.

Peter:For example in the morning, before noon, people say 'goedemorgen'.

Judith: good morning, And in the afternoon?

Peter:In the afternoon, even if it's just one minute past noon, people say 'goedemiddag'.

Judith:good afternoon,Is there an equivalent for "Good evening" as well?

Peter:Yes, we say "goedenavond".

Judith: Around what time do people start saying "goedenavond"?

Peter:Maybe around 5 pm. There is also 'goedenacht' meaning "good night", but this is not a greeting. 'Goedenacht' is only used to wish someone to 'sleep tight', when they're going to sleep. If you want to say Goodbye when leaving late at night, just say 'dag'.

KEY VOCABULARY AND PHRASES

Judith:Let's have a closer look at the usage for some of the words and phrases from this lesson.

Peter:The first word/phrase we'll look at is....

Peter:"Hallo" is a standard Dutch greeting. You can use this with anyone. When greeting friends, you could also say "hoi", which is more informal.

Judith:After you greet someone in Dutch, you would usually ask how he/she is.

Peter:The standard question is "Hoe gaat het?", literally "How goes it?". To ask about other people, just add "met" plus a name to the end of this question, for example "Hoe gaat het met Michael", "Hoe gaat het met Sandra".

DUTCHPOD101.COM ABSOLUTE BEGINNER S1 #1

Judith: And how would I answer this?

Peter:The standard answer is "Goed dank je" (good, thank you). You could also say "heel goed" (very good).

LESSON FOCUS

Peter: The focus of this lesson is pronunciation.

Judith:Dutch is quite easy in that the language is pronounced exactly as it is written. There are a few sounds that you should pay attention to.

Peter:One is certainly the throaty CH sound, which can be spelled either 'ch' or 'g', as in "goed", "gaat" or the city name "Utrecht".

Judith: This sound will take some practice, but once you master it, it's very fun to say!

Peter:The Dutch R is also quite different from the American R. It also comes from the throat. Practice saying names like "Bert" and "Marijke", or even the word "verassing".

Judith: Finally, pay attention to the vowels. The pronunciation of the vowels is a typical give-away for American tourists.

Peter:The base vowels in Dutch are A as in "gaat", E as in "heel", I as in "biet", O as in "ook", U as in "duur" and OE as in "hoe".

Judith: Additionally, each of the vowels can be long or short, and there are also several diphthongs, or vowel combinations.

Peter:Listen to native speakers carefully and pay particular attention to the vowels, then try to imitate them. This will help you acquire a good accent in Dutch.
